RENT INTERCEPTION

The Condominium Act was amended effective July 1, 2010 to allow an Association to demand that a tenant in possession must pay any future monetary obligation related to unit, i.e. rent, directly to the Association.

Fla. Stat. & 718.166(11)

(11)(a) If the unit is occupied by a tenant and the unit owner is delinquent in paying any monetary obligation due to the association, the association may make written demand that the tenant pay to the association the subsequent rental payments and continue to make such payments until all monetary obligations of the unit owner related to the unit have been paid in full to the association. The tenant must pay the monetary obligations to the association until the association releases the tenant or the tenant discontinues tenancy in the unit. Pursuant to section 718.116(11), Florida Statutes, the association demands that you pay your rent directly to the condominium association and continue doing so until the association notifies you otherwise.

This is commonly known as “rent interception”, and if the tenant fails to comply, the tenant may be subject to eviction. The statute allows the association to demand the “tenant pay to the association the subsequent rental payments and continue to make such payment until all monetary obligations of the unit owner related to the unit have been paid in full to the association.” The rent interception statute provides the association a tool to preclude an owner, who is often in foreclosure, from pocketing the rent obligation while shorting the owner’s obligation to the association.

As an owner you understand 10% of the rental interception amount is collected as a processing fee for efforts made. Also, you understand that a $25.00 fee for each notice posted/mailed is also charged to you.

You understand the law that has been stated above and will adhere to such recourse if needed.

Delinquency and Rental Proceeds

Recent legislative changes have given the Authority to Condominium Associations to collect rent directly from the renter when the owner is delinquent.

Section 718.716(11); Assessments; Tenant Occupancy: Where an owner is delinquent in any monetary obligation to the association, the association can make a demand for the tenant to pay the association the future monetary obligations related to the condominium unit owed to the association. The demand must be in writing. If the tenant fails to comply, the Association may have the tenant evicted in accordance with Florida Statutes Chapter 83. The unit owner shall give the tenant a credit against rent due to unit owner for any amounts paid by the tenant to the association.

The owner cannot have you evicted for non-payment of rent. They must give you credit for the payments made to the Association. However, the Association CAN evict a renter for non-compliance and non-payment of rental proceeds to the Association.

RE: First Mourings Condominium Inc. Leases

Approval of the lease is granted on several conditions. If a unit is having a leak or anything which is affecting the common area the owner of the unit must inform the management company in order to determine repairs. If the problem is ignored and not taking care of, the association will repair the problem. If it is determined to be the unit owner's responsibility and is hesitant to pay for such the association has the right to collect the rent money from tenant until the bill is satisfied. After the association sends 3 violations notices to the tenant and owner for the tenant not obeying to the rules and regulations. The association will terminate the lease.

La aprobación del arrendamiento se otorga en varias condiciones. Si una unidad tiene una fuga o cualquier cosa que esté afectando el área común, el propietario de la unidad debe inspeccionar a la empresa de administración para determinar las reparaciones. Si se ignora el problema y no se atiende, la asociación reparará el problema. Si se determina que es la responsabilidad del propietario de la unidad y duda en pagarla, la asociación tiene derecho a cobrar el dinero del alquiler del inquilino hasta que la factura sea satisfactoria. Si la asociación mande 3 cartas de violaciones al dueño y al inquilino por los inquilinos no siguiendo las leyes del condominio el contrato de renta se suspende y termina.
